

Resistance

300 facing
an army of thousands,
we offered our lives
in the great sacrifice
to the God of the Mountain
the one who has no face shelter us between the rock and a hard place

Resistance

They came in the morning Masada has fallen
We offered our lives
In the great sacrifice
To the God of the Mountain
the one who has no face
Shelter us between
the rock and a hard place

Resistance

Some things got to give Some things got to give
But it ain't me

We fought with the Marquis at Tulle and at Gueret
we offered our lives
in the great sacrifice
shelter us between
the rock and a hard place

Resistance

And at Treblinka we rose up in anger
shelter us between

Some things got to give
Some things got to give
But it ain't me

We occupied Madrid, Wall Street and London
we offered our time
In the great sacrifice
shelter us between

They cannot win
If we never give in So we offer our time
shelter us between

Resistance
